

Our staff, both in the Netherlands and Nepal are very well informed about Nepal in general, the way of life, traditions and folklore and in particular are very proficient in knowledge about cultural events, sites, customs, festivals etc. Furthermore through constant research within Nepal we are constantly looking for (and finding) new and exciting cultural programs/places and travel opportunities, which could be categorized as “Off The Beaten Track Travel”

All in all we know how to plan and execute your trip in detail, meet almost all your wishes and mold them into a travel-itinerary based on your needs, desires, plans, requirements and budget. Tell us what you want and we can accommodate you and your group to and in Nepal thus providing a lifetime experience which will be, in many cases, a unique one.
